Amendment of the Companies Acts.The Companies Act, 1907.

The Bill to amend the Companies Acts referred to in my last report was duly passed through all its stages in both Houses of Parliament and became law on the 28th August 1907. Only a small part, however, of the Act came into operation forthwith, the coming into operation of the greater part being deferred until the 1st July 1908.

The Limited Partnerships Bill, which was introduced last Session by Sir William Holland, was ultimately adopted by the Government and passed. It came into operation on the 1st January 1908.

Bill to Consolidate the Companies Acts.

The amending Act of last year has now been incorporated in the Bill to Consolidate the Companies Acts, and this Bill, since last Session, has undergone a most careful scrutiny and revision. In this work of revision the Board of Trade have had the assistance of Lord Justice Buckley, Mr. W. F. Hamilton, K.C., Mr. Frank Gore-Browne, K.C., Sir Francis Palmer, Mr. A. C. Clauson, and other experts in the law of Joint Stock Companies. To all these gentlemen the best thanks of the Board are due for their assistance.

The Bill has now been referred to a Joint Committee of both Houses of Parliament, consisting of the Lord Chancellor, the Earl of Halsbury, Lord Balfour of Burleigh the Earl of Granard, Lord Stanley of Alderley, Lord James of Hereford, Lord Faber, Mr. W. Phipson Beale, K.C., Mr. George Cave, K.C., Mr. T. Arnold Herbert, Mr. J. W. Hills, Mr. W. M. Kavanagh, Mr. Solicitor-General, and Mr. D. Stewart-Smith, K.C.

Bill to Remove the Restrictions of the Mortmain Acts from British Companies registered outside the United Kingdom.

The object of this Bill is to place trading companies incorporated in a British possession, and having a place of business in the United Kingdom, on the same footing with regard to the Mortmain Acts as trading companies registered in the United Kingdom, which under the 18th section of the Companies Act, 1862, are free from all restrictions under the Mortmain Acts.

At present every trading company registered outside the United Kingdom is under the disabilities imposed by the Mortmain Acts on corporate bodies, and has to obtain a licence from the Secretary of State for the Home Department (at a cost of about 70*l.*) with regard to each interest in land, freehold or leasehold, which it may wish to acquire.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Board of Trade,
July 1908.

Your obedient Servant,

H. LLEWELLYN SMITH.

Annex No. I.

Report by the Comptroller of the Companies Department on the matters within the Companies Acts, 1862 to 1900, for the year ending 31st December 1907.

To the Secretary of the Board of Trade.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to submit, for the information of the Board of Trade, the following Report upon the matters within the Companies Acts, 1862 to 1900, in relation to companies during the year ending 31st December 1907. The Report includes information furnished by the Registrars of Joint Stock Companies in England and Scotland respectively and by the Assistant Registrar in Ireland.

Additions to and Removals from the Register.

It appears from the returns of the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies that the number of new companies registered in England and Wales during the year ending 31st December 1907 was as follows, viz. :—

Total number of new companies	-	4,810
From which should be deducted—
1. Companies which have gone into liquidation (excluding two cases in which winding-up proceedings have been stayed)	-	1,795
2. Companies removed from the register under the provisions of the Companies Acts, 1880 and 1900	-	1,965
		3,760
Net increase during the year	-	1,050

Number of Companies wound up.

The total number of cases in which winding-up proceedings were begun during the year 1907 is as follows, viz. :—

1. Under the Act of 1862.
Voluntary Liquidations	-	1,676
Voluntary Liquidations, subject to supervision of the Court	-	13
2. Under the Act of 1890.
Compulsory Liquidations by Order of the Court	-	108
Total	-	1,797

Companies not for Profit.

Of the 4,810 companies registered during the past year, 33 were, under the provisions of the 23rd section of the Companies Act, 1867, licensed by the Board of Trade to be registered with limited liability but without the addition of the word "limited" to the name, as associations formed not for the purposes of profit. Of the 33 associations to which licences were granted, eight were for the promotion of religious objects; five were charitable in their nature; eight had artistic or scientific objects; seven were for the promotion of the general interests of various branches of commerce, and the remaining five associations had various objects which were considered by the Board of Trade to be within the terms of the section.

Licences to Companies not for Profit to hold Land.

During the year 1907 the Board of Trade have, under the powers conferred on them by the 21st section of the Companies Act, 1862, granted 44 licences to hold more than two acres of land to associations formed not for the purposes of profit.

Changes of Name by Companies.

During the past year the Board of Trade, under the powers vested in them by the 13th section of the Companies Act, 1862, have given their sanction to the change of name of 199 companies.

Appointment of Auditors by the Board of Trade.

The power vested in the Board of Trade under the 21st section of the Companies Act, 1900, to appoint an auditor, if an appointment of auditors is not made at an annual general meeting, was exercised in one case only during the year 1907.

Enforcement of Returns to the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

Proceedings to enforce returns to the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies, and the filing of documents required by statute, have been taken by the Solicitor to the Board of Trade in 35 cases, and fines have been imposed by the magistrates before whom the proceedings were brought in 29 cases.

Proceedings have also been taken in 13 cases against liquidators in voluntary liquidations to enforce the filing of accounts, and in 2 cases to compel the payment into the Bank of England of moneys shown by the accounts to be due to the Companies Liquidation Account.

Further particulars of these proceedings will be found in the report of the Solicitor to the Board of Trade below.

Progress of Registration of Companies.

The number of companies registered during 1907 again shows a large increase, the total being 5,265 for the United Kingdom, of which England and Wales contribute 4,810, Scotland 337, and Ireland 118. There has not, however, been an equivalent increase in the total nominal capital registered, the total nominal capital being 137,907,836*l.*, as compared with 136,738,249*l.* the figures for the previous year, and the average amount of nominal capital of each company registered shows the same tendency to fall which has been a noticeable feature for many years past. A considerable part of the increase in the number of companies registered seems to be due to very small companies, particularly to those having a nominal capital of between 1,000*l.* and 5,000*l.* This class has increased in England and Wales alone from 1,341 (the figure for the year 1906, and itself constituting a record), to 1,557 for the year 1907.

The above table shows that the great majority of companies are registered without any intention of asking the public to take any part in them, and that less than seven per cent. of the total number registered in the year 1907 issued a prospectus to the public. As might be expected, the percentage of capital represented by companies issuing a prospectus is considerably greater than the percentage of the number, the exact figures being 21·95 as compared with 6·99 per cent.

Prospectusless Companies.

The rise and fall from year to year in the use of the prospectus most clearly appears from the figures which have been kindly supplied by the Secretary of the London Stock Exchange relating to companies applying to the Committee of the London Stock Exchange for special settlement. The companies which apply for special settlement may be taken to be, generally speaking, the companies which desire public support, and which directly or indirectly invite the public to take a financial interest in them. The figures for the year 1906 showed a large increase in the number of companies issuing a prospectus, and a proportionate decrease in the number of companies without a prospectus. Last year's figures, on the other hand, show a marked increase in the percentage of companies without a prospectus, an increase for which at present it is difficult to assign a definite reason.

Under the Companies Act of last year all companies which do not issue a prospectus (other than private companies as defined by that Act) will, after the 1st July 1908, be obliged, before commencing business, to file with the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies a statement in lieu of prospectus containing the same information which a prospectus is bound to contain. Whether this provision has the effect of increasing the use of the prospectus or not, it will at all events secure that the intending investor has access to material information if he chooses to take the trouble to search for it.

It is too soon yet to judge of the prospects of success of the Limited Partnerships Act, which only came into operation on the 1st January last, nor can any sound opinion be ventured as to whether the mercantile community are likely to make much use of it or not. In its favour it may be remembered that the system of commandite partnerships or companies (which the Act in principle adopts) has proved both popular and useful in every country in Europe and in the United States of America. The question seems to be whether limited companies have taken so deep a root in England as to diminish the chances of success of a system of limited partnerships. If the Limited Partnerships Act is successful, its success will probably be gained at the expense of the smaller class of companies. Some, perhaps many, of the small concerns which are annually turned into limited companies may prefer to register themselves as limited partnerships. It has been pointed out above that there has been a very rapid growth during recent years in companies with small nominal capital. If the result of the Limited Partnerships Act is a decrease in the number of these small companies, and a corresponding growth in the number of limited partnerships, the result will be all to the good. The system of limited companies has without doubt done much for the trade of the country in the past, but it must be admitted that the system is far better suited to large concerns than to small ones. The management of every limited company must feel the lack of the spur which personal responsibility alone can give. Though this lack is necessary in the largest concerns—because many of them practically could not be carried on without limited liability—it is not to the same extent necessary in the small concerns, and it may be that the energy and vitality in business which is the fruit of individual responsibility may be preserved in limited partnerships by means of the unlimited liability of the “general” partner.

Companies ordered to be wound up by the Court in 1907.

The total number of companies ordered by the Court to be wound up compulsorily during the year 1907 was, as stated above, 108, of which 69 were ordered to be wound up in the High Court, and the remaining 39 in the Palatine and various County Courts. A complete list of these companies appears in Table VIII. of Annex No. XI. attached to this Report.

The average duration of life of these companies was 4·5 years. One of the companies had existed for 47 years, one for 26 years, while 22 had been registered for less than one year before the winding up.

A few of the companies ordered by the Court to be wound up have been selected below, and some details given of the result of the inquiries made by the Official Receivers as helping to throw some light on the working of the Companies Acts at present in force.

Rhodesia Goldfields, Limited (High Court).—This is the largest failure among the companies ordered to be wound up compulsorily during the year, and at the date of the winding-up order against the Company there were liabilities to creditors and shareholders amounting to 586,033*l.*, to meet which there were assets estimated at 168,938*l.*, leaving a deficiency of 417,095*l.*

The Company was formed in the year 1895 with a nominal capital of 1,000,000*l.* divided equally into preference and ordinary shares. The capital issued amounted to 500,677*l.*, of which 100,000*l.* was in preference shares. Its object was to carry on business as an Investment Company dealing in the securities of companies interested principally in Rhodesia.

The promoters were Messrs. Henry Partridge and Col. A. Weston Jarvis, who were at that time carrying on business in partnership under the style of “Partridge & Jarvis.” Their business was a general financial business, the firm acting as principals and agents in the purchase and sale of shares, underwriting issues, and acting as insurance agents. The firm also acted as secretaries and agents to various companies, most of which they had promoted.

Mr. Partridge acted as either manager or chairman of the Company throughout its existence and Col. Jarvis as a director from the month of June 1899. The investments made on behalf of the Company were, from the first, to an extent in securities of companies located in the office of the promoters. The proportion was not large in the early days of the Company's existence, but it increased until at the date of the last balance-sheet issued by the Company—to 31 December 1905—out of investments exceeding 458,922*l.*, shares and other securities of 15 companies in the group amounted to 382,025*l.* A very large proportion of the latter amount was invested in the shares of three companies, and on the value standing in the books at the date of the winding-up there was a loss on the estimated realisation of 240,895*l.*

Purchases and sales of investments on behalf of the Company were throughout made in the name of Partridge & Jarvis, and not in the name of the Company, and, as a general rule, there is no record of instructions being given by the directors for the purchase and sale of securities, although the promoters state that such instructions were, in fact, given. There was an arrangement between the firm of Partridge & Jarvis and the brokers, through whom the bulk of the Company's dealings were effected, under which the promoters received one-half of the brokers' commission on the transactions.

Shortly after the formation of the Company Partridge & Jarvis sold their own business as company secretaries and managers to a Company which was formed for the purpose, entitled "Rhodesia Agency, Limited." The price paid by the Agency for the business was 100,000*l.* in fully-paid shares. The profits arising from the business sold to the Agency amounted to about 1,000*l.* per annum. A prospectus of the Agency was issued inviting subscriptions for shares, it being stated that an investment business similar to the Goldfields Company would be carried on. Subscriptions for 92,000*l.* were obtained, and an investment business similar to the Goldfields Company was commenced. In 1899 the business of the Agency was purchased by the Goldfields Company for the sum of 200,000*l.*, but, as 50,000*l.* of shares in the Agency were held by the Goldfields Company, the consideration that passed was 150,000*l.* only, which was paid one-half in shares and one-half in debentures of the Goldfields Company, secured upon the assets of both Companies. The principal holders of shares in the Agency were Messrs. Partridge & Jarvis, who, as a result of this transaction, received between them 39,525*l.* debentures and the same amount in shares of the Goldfields Company. The secretarial part of the business had stood in the Agency books at the sum of 100,000*l.* ever since they bought it, and it was taken over by the Goldfields at that price. At the date of the winding-up it was considered by the directors to be worthless.

As a result of the acquisition of the Agency assets the Goldfields Company acted as secretary and manager for a number of companies, from each of which a fee was received. It does not appear, however, that this business resulted in a profit as a whole. The practice with regard to the keeping of the accounts of the companies was that a firm of accountants were employed at a fixed fee of 2,000*l.* per annum to keep the accounts of all the companies. They had a staff of clerks engaged on the business and located in the offices of the Company. In addition to keeping the books and acting as accountants to the various companies, the firm acted as auditors also, and for their services in the latter capacity received a separate fee from each company. No instance can be pointed out in which the dual capacity in which the accountants acted has resulted to the detriment of the Company's interests, but the practice appears to be most undesirable, and must have rendered it difficult for the accountants to maintain the independence of action so necessary to auditors. Under section 21 (3) of the Companies Act, 1900, an officer of a company is made incapable of appointment as auditor, and even if the present case was not within the terms of that provision, it should have called attention to the danger of the position.

The Official Receiver in his report to the shareholders and creditors directs attention to the following points:—

- (A) The practice by which purchases and sales of the Company's investments were made in the name of Partridge & Jarvis.
- (B) The receipt by the firm of Partridge & Jarvis of half the brokers' commission, thus placing the members of that firm, during their directorship, in the position of making a profit out of their trust.
- (C) The purchase from, and sale to, the firm of Partridge & Jarvis of blocks of shares, involving a considerable amount. Purchases and sales by persons holding fiduciary positions have generally been considered undesirable. They were the more undesirable in this case, in which so much of the control of the Company's affairs was in Messrs. Partridge & Jarvis's hands.
- (D) The method of buying and selling investments without the authority of the Board having been previously recorded in the minutes was one which would appear to have given the managing director too wide a discretion and a power capable of being exercised contrary to the Company's real interests.

Trading on Debenture Capital.

There seems to be an increasing tendency to trade with debenture capital only, and with little or no subscribed share capital. By this means a trader's capital is, in effect, preferred, in the case of the failure of his business, to the claims of the unsecured creditors. When this result occurs, the creditors it is true have no legal right to complain or to feel that an injustice has been done to them, for the issue of debentures is within the law, and in the information filed at the Joint Stock Registry the creditors have had full information both of the existence of the debentures and of the absence of the subscribed capital. Nevertheless the tendency is one which seems to be undesirable and not likely to conduce to sound trade.

A good example is to be found in the case of A. B. Bullivant & Sons, Limited (Manchester District). In this case the Official Receiver reports that the Company was started upon the small sum of 26*l.* 12*s.* 4*d.* in the office till; that there was no cash in the bank; and that in fact the Company commenced with an overdraft which was increased by the end of the first year to 22,747*l.* 2*s.* 1*d.*, and in June 1906 had reached the sum of 58,790*l.* The only share capital that was subscribed for cash was 7*l.*, in seven 1*l.* shares, of which, the Official Receiver reports, 6*l.* still remains unpaid. At the date of the winding-up order there were outstanding loans from the Bank secured on debentures amounting to a total of 47,888*l.* 17*s.* 1*d.*, and against this debt the assets are valued in the statement of affairs at 37,293*l.* 5*s.* 5*d.* The Bank have, however, agreed to hand over to the liquidator a sum sufficient to pay the costs of the liquidation and a dividend of 2*s.* in the £ to the unsecured creditors, whose claims amount to 22,765*l.*

Other instances are as follows:—

The Rossendale Belting Company, Limited (Manchester).—The Company was promoted in August, 1902, to take over as a going concern the business of a manufacturer of belting for machinery which had for the preceding seventeen years been carried on by Mr. Samuel Ogden, of Manchester. At the date of the formation of the Company the amount standing to the credit of Mr. Ogden in his Capital Account, including accrued compound interest, was approximately 47,000*l.* and the account in question purported to show the sums put into the business from time to time by Mr. Ogden with compound interest at 5 per cent., the account not having been credited with the profits derived from the business from time to time, nor debited with losses. The purchase price, 30,000*l.*, appears to have been fixed upon the basis of the Capital Account referred to, together with 8,000*l.* for goodwill, and 5,000*l.* for the value of certain patents, but less the amount of the liabilities owing in connection with the business; and this price of 30,000*l.* was secured by a debenture for the same amount, bearing interest at 3 per cent. per annum. The only capital authorised and subscribed was 100 shares of 1*l.* each, of which 94 shares were allotted to the Governing Director for cash and one share each to six other persons, respectively his father, his brothers, and his sisters. The Company's business was a bond fide undertaking, but it is manifest from the disproportion between the authorised and subscribed capital and the amount of the debenture that the Company was throughout trading at the risk of the creditors. The striking facts in connection with the formation of the Company are the disproportion above referred to, and the fact that the purchase price of the Company's business was based upon a Capital Account which had no relation to the value of the business at the date it was sold to the Company. The accounts filed by the officers of the Company show that the trading of the Company from the date of its formation to the date of the winding-up order resulted in the loss of 8,700*l.* The assets, which are estimated at the net sum of 3,360*l.*, but are likely to realise the sum of about 6,000*l.*, are wholly covered by outstanding debentures for 28,800*l.*, and the unsecured creditors, who are 90 in number, with claims amounting to 13,720*l.*, will get nothing.

The Dartford Portland Cement Company, Limited (High Court).—The Company was formed in 1895 with a capital of 20,000*l.* to take over the business of a cement manufacturer. No prospectus was issued, and no capital was raised by the issue of shares, the funds required to finance the concern being raised from time to time by debentures. The purchase consideration was 21,350*l.*, 18,350*l.* being satisfied by 18,350 fully-paid shares allotted to the vendor, and the balance of 3,000*l.* was paid to him in cash. In addition to the above-mentioned sum of 3,000*l.*, some 11,700*l.* was raised by debentures through Mr. A. E. Greville, who was appointed solicitor to the Company. Mr. Greville received large sums by way of commission for these services, and in addition received 5,000 fully-paid shares from the vendor, 1,000 of which were purchased from him for 1,000*l.* in cash. Nearly the whole of the funds thus raised was expended upon the works, instead of a proportion being applied to working capital, of which the Company had need. The debentures were secured by a Trust Deed, the trustees under which were Mr. Greville and his son. When the Company had got into difficulties through the want of working capital Mr. Greville appointed a Receiver, and the undertaking was disposed of for a sum insufficient to meet the amount due under the debentures, thus leaving no funds available to meet the claims of the unsecured creditors, whose debts amounted to about 6,000*l.*

Stubbs Brothers and John Chew (Longton), Limited (Stoke-on-Trent and Longton).—Formed in 1904 to take over two businesses of china manufacturers. The purchase price was 3,622*l.*, of which 2,300*l.* was satisfied by the issue of debentures. 6*l.* in shares were allotted as fully paid, and 10*l.* only was subscribed in cash. Additional debentures were issued for 2,000*l.* in consideration for a loan and guarantee of an overdraft. The loss on the first year's working was 1,799*l.*, and although the Company was then admittedly insolvent, it carried on business until May 1906, when the mother of two of the vendors, who was the principal debenture holder, appointed a Receiver. The Official Receiver states that there is little likelihood of the unsecured creditors for 4,025*l.* receiving any dividend.

Vendor's Floating Charge.

Rainbows, Limited (Birmingham).—The Company was registered in December 1905 to purchase the business of a furniture dealer. The vendor was the sole director of the Company, and in that capacity entered into an agreement to purchase his own business for 2,000*l.* 1,000*l.* being satisfied by the issue of debentures for that amount, and the balance of 1,000*l.* being paid in shares. No independent valuation of the business was made. The Company also undertook to pay the vendor's trade liabilities, amounting to 802*l.* 11*s.* 7*d.* No share capital was subscribed in cash except the seven shares subscribed by the signatories to the Memorandum of Association. In December 1906 the Company was pressed by its creditors, and in the following February the shareholders (consisting of the vendor and the six other signatories) passed a resolution for voluntary winding-up, and on the same day a Receiver was appointed for the debenture holders. The realisation of the Company's assets resulted in 845*l.* net being paid to the vendor under his debentures, and the unsecured creditors for 1,019*l.* getting nothing.

Registration of Charges on Book Debts.

The British Electric Equipment Company, Limited (High Court).—The business of this Company consisted almost entirely of the carrying out of engineering contracts in connection with electric tramways for town and district councils. The nominal capital was 40,000*l.* in 1*l.* shares, of which 14,107 were issued. Of these 8,000 were issued as fully paid to the vendor, H. G. Nicholson, under the purchase agreement, and 6,000 were issued as preference shares under the provisions of the Memorandum and Articles of Association to one J. Cleland, whose investment was guaranteed by Mrs. Nicholson, the wife of the vendor, who was also the managing director. At the date of the winding-up order the claims of the unsecured creditors amounted to 7,724*l.*, and the assets consisted chiefly of book debts, amounting to 8,380*l.*, due from the various councils under the engineering contracts.

The Company throughout was financed by Mrs. Nicholson, to whom, a few days prior to the winding-up order being made, debentures for 2,000*l.* were issued, which were registered in accordance with the Companies Act, 1900, at the Joint Stock Companies Registry. Upon the Official Receiver's investigation he ascertained that practically all the book debts were charged to Mrs. Nicholson in respect of advances amounting to 9,680*l.* Seven specific charges had been executed in her favour, but according to the law then existing it was not necessary to register them, and therefore the unsecured creditors, prior to the winding-up, had no knowledge of the charges. The liquidation of the Company remained in the hands of the Official Receiver, and he took steps to test the validity of the debentures, and also to dispute the amount claimed under the charges. Subsequently negotiations were entered into with a view to a compromise, and, with the approval of the committee of inspection, the Official Receiver accepted the sum of 1,000*l.*, which was sufficient to pay the costs and a dividend of about 2*s.* in the £ on the claims of the unsecured creditors.

This case is a good illustration of the necessity for the alteration in the law effected by the Companies Act, 1907, under section 10 of which it will in future be necessary to register all charges on book debts.

Failures of Motor Omnibus and Car Companies.

Motor Enterprises, Limited (High Court).—Formed in March 1906 with a nominal capital of 3,050*l.* to promote a larger company to run motor omnibuses in London, and to take over the vendors' interest in certain contracts and options for purchases of motor chassis. The Alliance Motor Bus Co., Limited (High Court), also being compulsorily wound up, was promoted in April 1906 with a nominal capital of 200,000*l.*, and in May 1906 entered into an agreement to pay Motor Enterprises 7,000*l.* in cash and 7,000*l.* in shares, and to give an option to take a number of shares at 21*s.* each, the consideration being the benefit of certain contracts relating to the manufacture and delivery of motor chassis and bodies as well as the benefit of the vendor company's data and statistics relative to motor traffic. A prospectus was issued and 627 shares only were applied for by the public, but 35,000 shares had been underwritten. The majority, however, of the underwriters were found to be without means, and owing to their failure to pay the amounts due on their shares, 26,000 out of the 35,000 shares allotted were forfeited. Such shares had been pooled, and by that means and the non-allotment of shares to one of the underwriters who had sold shares on the Stock Exchange in anticipation of receiving an allotment, the price of the shares was raised to a high figure. The Alliance Company did no business excepting the ordering of some motor buses and making payments on account of them. There are unsecured claims for 5,247*l.*, of which, however, over 2,800*l.* is due to Motor Enterprises. The unpaid calls amount to 25,237*l.*, and are estimated to produce 1,415*l.*

Motor Trading and Contract Corporation, Limited (High Court).—This was formed to promote a company to work motor omnibuses, and to take over, for 10,000*l.* in fully-paid shares, benefits in certain contracts to supply motor chassis. The shares were not allotted, although the Corporation received the benefit of the contracts. The London Standard Omnibus Company, Limited, was promoted by the Corporation in March 1906 with a nominal capital of 250,000*l.*, and, in consideration of a guarantee to supply 200 motor omnibuses, at an agreed price, the Corporation was to receive 6,500*l.* in cash and 6,000*l.* in fully-paid shares. Only 7*l.* of the capital of the Company has been subscribed, and creditors' claims amount to 16,839*l.*, of which 9,254*l.* is claimed by the promoter. The only assets are cash 1*l.* and doubtful book debts for 28,430*l.*, which are estimated to produce nothing.

Straker and MacConnell (1906) Limited (High Court).—This Company was formed in March 1906 with a capital of 250,000*l.*, to take over as a going concern the business of Automobile Engineers and Factors carried on by a Company with a similar name, which had been registered in March 1905 with a capital of 5,000*l.* The purchase price was fixed at 25,600*l.*, and the object in forming the Company was to obtain capital to exploit certain contracts made by the vendors with various continental motor manufacturers. A prospectus was issued inviting subscriptions to 150,000*l.* of the capital, but the issue was unsuccessful, and the application monies were returned. Notwithstanding the failure of the issue, it was decided by the remaining directors (the promoters) to continue the business, and, in order to obtain the Registrar's certificate to commence business, a further prospectus was filed (but not issued) offering 1,000 shares for subscription, the minimum subscription under the Articles of Association being one-tenth of the capital offered for subscription. The promoters applied for, and took up, 400 shares, sufficient to go to allotment, and thus obtain the Registrar's certificate.

Owing to want of capital the purchase agreement was not completed, and the Company and Vendor Company carried on business at the same address, practically as one concern, until the latter Company went into voluntary liquidation. The Company was financed by means of advances from its bankers on the security of motor cars ordered from manufacturers. A large number of cars were purchased and disposed of by the Companies, but, owing to the excessive expenses of management, the trading resulted in a heavy loss. The total claims against the Companies are about 20,000*l.*, with assets amounting to less than one-fifth of that sum.

British and French Motors, Limited (High Court).—Formed 23rd May 1906, to acquire the business of a motor and general engineer, and to exploit patents. The nominal capital was 20,000*l.* in shares of 1*l.* each, of which 5,500 were issued to vendors as fully paid up, 2,000 were issued as fully paid up to the manager for "additional services," and 2,607 were applied for by and allotted to persons known to the promoter. One of the allottees, who applied for 500 shares, refused to make any payment on the ground that he had been induced to sign the application by fraudulent misrepresentation on the part of the promoter, and the Court ordered his name to be struck out of the list of contributories.

Three directors who had subscribed for 1,900 shares were allotted 750 fully-paid shares in consideration of their having paid in full the amount due on their shares, and another director was allotted 250 shares in consideration of services alleged to have been rendered by him in the promotion of the Company. No contracts relating to the allotments of these shares were entered into, and upon the directors' attention being called to the illegality of such proceedings they treated them as cancelled, and upon the suggestion of the Company's auditor the minutes of the directors' proceedings were revised and amended so as to exclude any reference to these allotments. The directors then caused a contract to be entered into between the Company and the promoter which provided for the allotment to him of 3,000 fully-paid shares, the alleged consideration being additional services rendered to the Company. This contract was merely a device to enable the directors to obtain for themselves the 1,000 fully-paid shares above mentioned, and to give 2,000 fully-paid shares to the Company's auditor for alleged services to be rendered by him. Steps to recover the amount of the shares have been taken against the persons liable to account.

The Carlton Garage, Limited, was formed in May 1906 to take over the business of a motor car proprietor and motor garage carried on by E. D. Billing, with the stock, machinery, lease and goodwill thereof, for 2,000*l.* payable half in cash and half in shares. The shares were allotted in December 1906 and a third debenture for 1,000*l.* (which has been surrendered) was issued to Billing in lieu of cash. No other shares beyond the signatories' shares were taken up, but debentures for 1,250*l.* have been issued, of which 1,000*l.* was expended in the purchase of additional stock. The business is stated to have made a profit of 500*l.* per annum prior to the Company's formation, but the trading of the Company had by May 1907 resulted in a serious loss. Its failure is attributed to severe competition by taximeter cabs and losses through defective chassis supplied to it.

The claims of the debenture holders (excluding Billing) amount to 1,354*l.* for principal and interest. Unsecured debts amount to 1,022*l.*, not including Billing's claim for 1,000*l.* unpaid purchase money. The assets are not expected to realise more than sufficient to pay the debenture-holders.

Debentures of Guernsey Company.

Southern Counties Stores, Limited (Southampton).—Registered in Guernsey in March 1906 with a nominal capital of 20,000*l.* to take over a grocery and provision business. The purchase price was 14,000*l.* in fully-paid shares, of which 11,500*l.* was in consideration for fixtures and goodwill. The Company also took over liabilities of the vendor to the extent of 2,000*l.* Working capital was obtained by the issue of 1,000*l.* preference shares to the friends of the directors, and of debentures for 2,000*l.* in return for an advance of 1,500*l.* A Receiver was, subsequently to the winding-up order, appointed by the Court, but, as the Company was registered in Guernsey and the debentures were not registered as bills of sale, doubt was raised as to their validity, inasmuch as a floating charge is not recognised by the law of Guernsey. The debenture-holder offered to withdraw any claim he might have to certain moneys in the hands of the sheriff, and the Chairman of the Directors offered to pay a sum of 150*l.* to the Official Receiver, to be applied in payment of the costs of the liquidation and of a dividend to the unsecured creditors, provided the liquidator took no further proceedings in the debenture-holder's action. This offer was accepted, and sanctioned by the Court in the debenture action.

Companies not Registered under the Companies Acts.

During 1907 Winding-up Orders were made against three companies which were not registered under the Companies Acts, viz., the Beverley Waterworks Company (High Court), incorporated under a special Act of Parliament in 1881; the National Society of Qualified Accountants (High Court), an unregistered Company; and the Southern Counties Stores (Southampton), which was registered in Guernsey.

Public Examinations.

Twenty-four persons were publicly examined during the past year, and the following table shows the figures for the past five years:—

Annex No. XIII.—Report by the Solicitor to the Board of Trade upon Legal Proceedings conducted by him (a) under the Companies (Winding-up) Act, 1890; (b) under the Companies Acts, 1862 to 1900.

(A) PROCEEDINGS UNDER THE COMPANIES (WINDING-UP) ACT, 1890.

The proceedings conducted by me under the Companies (Winding-up) Act, 1890, during the year 1907 may be divided into two classes, viz.: (1) cases in which I appeared on behalf of Official Receivers; and (2) proceedings by the Board of Trade against liquidators who had made default either in rendering their accounts or in paying over moneys to the Companies Liquidation Account.

(1)—Proceedings to which Official Receivers were parties.

I appeared for the Official Receiver for the Liverpool district before a Divisional Court, and subsequently in the Court of Appeal, to oppose appeals brought by a contributory of a company which was being wound up in the Liverpool County Court against an order of the County Court Judge in the following circumstances:—

The Company in question was the owner of a ship which was lost at sea; and upon the loss of the ship, action was brought against the Company by the owners of the cargo to recover the loss sustained by them. In that action it was found that the loss of the ship was due to negligent navigation, and that subject to certain questions which were reserved for further consideration, the Company as owners of the vessel were liable for a large sum in respect of the damage sustained by the owners of the cargo. The Company subsequently admitted liability and commenced an action to limit their liability in pursuance of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, with the result that the Company was held to be answerable for a sum not exceeding 12,175*l.* 12*s.* (being at the rate of 8*l.* per ton); and it was ordered that upon payment into Court of that sum, with interest, the proceedings against the Company should be stayed.

At the time of her loss the ship was under the control of Charterers; and after the litigation already mentioned, the Company also brought an action against the Charterers, contending that the latter were liable to indemnify the Company against the damages for which it was liable to the owners of the cargo. In that action judgment was given in favour of the Company, and an appeal which was brought by the Charterers from the decision of the Admiralty Court failed. In the meantime, as the Company had failed to pay the owners of the cargo, they presented a petition in the Liverpool County Court to wind up the Company, upon which a winding-up order was made under which the Official Receiver became the Provisional Liquidator.

After the Charterers' unsuccessful appeal to the Court of Appeal, they paid over to the Official Receiver the amount of the damages for which they had been held liable; but at the same time they gave notice of appeal to the House of Lords, and warned the Official Receiver that, in the event of the appeal being successful, they would look to him for the return of the money paid by them.

Whilst the Charterers' appeal to the House of Lords was pending, a Contributory (who had also occupied the position of Manager of the Company) applied to the County Court in the winding-up for an order directing the Official Receiver to pay the money in his hands into the High Court to the credit of the limitation action, and for stay of all further proceedings in the winding-up, upon such payment being made. On behalf of the applicant it was pointed out that the Company was liable for interest on the amount payable into Court in the limitation action at the rate of 4 per cent. until the money was paid in, and that it was therefore desirable in the interests of the Company that the money should be paid over as soon as possible. It was also stated that the Company's only debt was that due to the Petitioning Creditors, and that if the judgment in the Company's favour against the Charterers was upheld by the House of Lords, the Company would be perfectly solvent. For these reasons the Court was pressed to direct the Official Receiver to pay over the money in his hands, and to stay the proceedings.

The application was opposed by the Official Receiver upon the ground first that if the Charterers' appeal to the House of Lords were successful, he would be liable to the Charterers for the money paid to him by them, and would have no funds to meet this liability; and secondly, that the effect of paying the money over as the applicant asked would be that the Petitioning Creditors would receive payment of their debt to the exclusion of any other creditors who might be afterwards ascertained to have claims against the Company.

On these grounds the Official Receiver contended that the Court should not make any order which would take the money out of his control, and make it impossible for him to discharge the liability which he might incur to the Charterers if their appeal to the House of Lords were successful.

The County Court Judge made an Order staying the proceedings, but declined to order the Official Receiver to pay over the money in his hands. At the same time the Judge considered that arrangements ought to be made for the investment of the moneys so as to meet, as far as possible, the amount payable into Court by the Company under the limitation decree. Appeals were brought against the decision of the County Court Judge to the Divisional Court and to the Court of Appeal; and on these I represented the Official Receiver and instructed Counsel on his behalf. In the result both appeals were dismissed. It may be mentioned that, in accordance with the Judge's views, the money in the Official Receiver's hands was subsequently invested, and that upon the dismissal of the Charterers' appeal by the House of Lords, the Official Receiver was able to pay over the money in accordance with the limitation decree.

Another case also involved an application for stay of proceedings under a winding-up order in the following circumstances. Before the winding-up the Company was proposing to sell its business, but a difficulty arose in arranging terms with some of the unsecured creditors, who eventually presented a petition and obtained a winding-up order. After the order had been made negotiations with the parties concerned were renewed, with the result that terms were arrived at which involved settlement of the claims of all the unsecured creditors and payment of all the costs and expenses incidental to the winding-up. As it seemed clear that, if the liquidation proceeded, it would be found that the Company had not assets available for these liabilities, the arrangement proposed was obviously beneficial to the persons interested; and in the circumstances, no opposition was offered on behalf of the Official Receiver to the application to stay the proceedings, and an order was accordingly made.

I represented the Official Receiver in a debenture-holder's action in the High Court in which the facts raised the question (subsequently decided in Clark v. Balm Hill & Co., 1908, 1 K.B. 667) whether the debentures under which the plaintiff claimed might not be held to be invalid as being unregistered bills of sale, having regard to the fact that the Company was not registered in England under the Companies Acts. An arrangement, however, was come to under which the money arising from the sale of a portion of the property covered by the debentures was by consent made available for the ordinary creditors of the Company, and upon these terms an order was made staying the proceedings in the action.

In two cases summonses were issued in police courts against the directors of Companies against which compulsory winding-up orders had been made, for the purpose of enforcing the delivery of the Statutory Statements of Affairs. In the first case, upon a summons to recover the penalties prescribed by section 7 of the Companies (Winding-Up) Act, 1890, the Magistrate imposed a fine of 10*l.* with the alternative of one month's imprisonment. In the second case the Respondent having made default in paying a fine of 1*l.* and 5*l.* 5*s.* costs previously inflicted by the Magistrate upon a similar summons, he was committed to prison for one month; but after three days' detention the fine and costs were paid and the Respondent was thereupon released.

In a third case application was made to the High Court to direct a Writ of Attachment to issue against the Respondent in respect of his failure to obey an Order of the Court directing him to render the Statement of Affairs. In consequence, however, of the Respondent's illness, the application was directed to stand over.

(2)—Proceedings by the Board of Trade in the Police Court and in the High Court against defaulting Liquidators.

In 234 cases I was instructed to take proceedings against liquidators to enforce the delivery of statutory statements showing the proceedings in and position of the liquidation. In 221 of those cases the persons concerned were induced to file the necessary documents without proceedings; and in the remaining cases police court summonses were issued, with the result that in all of them (excepting two, where the liquidators could not be found) the Respondents at once forwarded the required statements.

In four cases liquidators neglected to pay over undistributed balances in their hands. Proceedings were actually necessary however in only two of those cases; in one of them the money was at once paid over; in the other case it became necessary to obtain an order giving leave to issue a Writ of Attachment against the Liquidator, under which he was arrested and detained for a short time, but released on payment of the amount due from him.

(B) PROCEEDINGS UNDER THE COMPANIES ACTS, 1862 to 1900.

During the year ending the 31st December 1907 946 Companies were reported to me for action in respect of default in rendering the various Returns and Notices required by the Companies Acts.

It was only necessary to institute proceedings in 35 of these cases in order to enforce compliance with the Statutory provisions. 27 convictions were obtained for offences under Section 26 of the Companies Act, 1862 (as amended by Section 19 of the Act of 1900), and two other convictions were obtained—one a case of default in forwarding to the Registrar a copy of the Register of Directors and the other of default in so forwarding a Notice of change in the situation of the Registered Office, being respectively offences under Section 45 of the Companies Act, 1862 (as amended by Section 20 of the Act of 1900), and Section 40 of the Act of 1862.
